I lost my grandfather to cancer on Nov 20th 2000. I worked different jobs after High school before joining the US ARMY on Oct 2006. I went to basic training for the US ARMY on Oct 24, 2006. After graduating basic training in 2007 I was stationed at Ft. Riley in Kansas were I was part of 1-63 Combined Arm ^{Artillery} Battalion and 2-70 Armored division were I deployed to Iraq, from 2008 to 2009 were I was part of the base defense center due to not being able to do my job as ~~the~~ ^{an infantry} man which is in direct field infantry men due to a knee ^{injury} ~~injury~~ ^{injury} around ~~2008~~ ^{July 4th} 2008 after being at Ft IRuin in California for deploying to Iraq. While in Iraq I keep track out which units went out on patrol and all equipment for the base defense center. While in Iraq I reenlisted and was stationed at Ft. Drum in New York in 2010 and was part of 2-87 Infantry and was deployed to ~~Afghanistan~~ Afghanistan in 2011 to 2012. I had a daughter born on Feb 11th 2011 before I deployed and a son born on May 16th 2011 shortly after I deployed. My two kids have different mother. I still try to stay in contact with my kids as much as I can. I was discharged from the US ARMY in 2013 after a court marshal where I was sentenced to 3 years at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas and ^{bad conduct} ~~dishonorably~~ discharged from the US Army but due to my reenlistment in 2008 while in Iraq I also have a honorable discharge so I still receive my medical benefits from the Veterans Affairs. I was released from Ft Leavenworth in 2015. I caught my first state prison sentence in 2012 ^{and was} ~~sentenced~~ sentenced to 3 years with ten years post supervised release while on parole I violated by sending pics of underage girls (childporn) to an under ~~cover~~ ^{cover} investigator because I was dealing with my PTSD, depression, and anxiety in a negative way instead of asking for help through mental health and other resources.

Thank you
